DAVID LAWRENCE CENTER HOSTS NEW YOUTH ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS MEETING

In order to meet the growing demand for supportive services for adolescents and young adults in substance abuse recovery in Collier County, the David Lawrence Center has begun hosting a new Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) meeting specifically targeted to young people. The group is being called "The Meeting of the Young Minds" and is being held Wednesdays from 5:30 – 6:30 p.m. at the David Lawrence Center Substance Abuse and Satellite Services Office located at 2806 South Horseshoe Drive in the upstairs meeting room.

The meetings are free and open to the public.

For more information, contact David Lawrence Center at 643-6101.

David Lawrence Center is a not-for-profit, community mental health center that provides affordable mental health and substance abuse services in Southwest Florida. In addition to helping children with behavioral, emotional and substance abuse challenges, the Center provides counseling and rehabilitative services to adults in crisis and individuals with persistent mental illness. David Lawrence Center has eight locations in Collier County and touches the lives of more than 17,000 people each year. It is David Lawrence Center's mission to restore and rebuild the lives of all of those in need. More information about David Lawrence Center can be found online at davidlawrencecenter.org.
